

The Asbury Community

We are pleased to add a new contributor and Section to the Pacolet Memories website. Janet Spencer grew up and lives in Asbury, SC. Pacolet and Asbury have long had close connections. Janet has graciously agreed to provide articles and stories to this website about the Asbury community. She has a wealth of knowledge about the community and its people.

Biography of Janet

Janet S. Spencer is a retired newspaper reporter after more than three decades who wrote primarily crime and feature stories for the Spartanburg Herald-Journal, The Gaffney Ledger, The Blacksburg Times and the Cherokee Chronicle. She graduated from Gaffney High School in 1968 and received a B.A degree in Secondary Education and French in 1971 from Limestone College (now University). Janet grew up in the Asbury Community of Cherokee County and has returned to the home she shared with her parents, the late Peeler Felmet "Hambone" and Dot Harris Sanders, where she continues to enjoy writing. She is a mother, grandmother, great-grandmother of one and as Loretta Lynn sings, "One's on the way" - a great-grandson this time. She can be reached at newsjanet@aol.com.

Asbury Articles

Janet's articles about the Asbury community can be accessed from this page. Her first article can be read by clicking on Introduction to Asbury

Janet has an interest in Genealogy. Read more at Janet and Genealogy.

Janet has a new article about her Grandparent's house in the Asbury Community when she was growing up. Read the story at The Tenant House.

Return to The Pacolet Memories Home Page