

This is a picture of the Army National Guard Company from Pacolet and Jonesville in 1961. The commanding officer of the company is Capt. Oliver Easter, a longtime friend of my Dad. The picture was furnished by Easter Fisher and Pamela Craig. The picture has been broken up and enlarged into three parts for easier identification. Also, this document is a PDF file that will allow you to zoom in even closer. I was able to identify a few of the men in the picture. Thanks to Don Camby, Peggy Schull, Bill Goforth, Rita Kirby Burgess, Dawn Martin Bennett, Samuel Goforth and Erskine Lee, many others have been identified.
